

Newport Drops Out of League

Newport is dropping out of the County Baseball League. Earl Sells, manager of the Coast

Guard team, announced yesterday that members of the Newport team will play with the Coast Guard.

The Coast Guard is also moving its home field to Newport. It formerly played on the Morehead City diamond, but a construction project there has made use of the field impossible, he said.

Norman Clark, president of the loop, said that scheduled Newport games for the rest of the season will be dropped. The Coast Guard will play its scheduled game Sunday at Salter Path, as planned.

LITTLE LEAGUE (Second Half)

	W	L
Small Fry	1	0
Moose	1	1
Idle Hour	0	0
Hooligans	0	1

The scheduled game between Newport and Smyrna - Harkers Island will not be played, according to Manager Sells of the Coast Guard.
