

Eagles Lose Final Game At Swansbo

The Eagles ended the season Wednesday with record, losing the final Swansboro, 6-0.

Cliff Waters was the pitcher, allowing Morehead only one hit. Donald Yea took the loss, although he was aided by Ray Salter, who was relieved by Reid K

The Morehead City staff gave up eight hits. Lington, who got the game's best hit, a triple, and the pitcher led the Swansboro men, with two hits apiece. Brigman got a single in the inning, the Eagles' lone hit.

No other information was available on the game.