

Outdoor Event Monday Will Honor '91' Seadogs

Lewis Home Run Ices Ball Game

- Aycock Bows Monday To Seadogs 5-1
- Parris Croom Hurls For Winners

A home run by Chuck Lewis with the bases loaded put Beaufort's Seadogs in the winner's box Monday in a game with Charles B. Aycock high school.

Played at Beaufort, the game ended with a 5-1 score. The homer came in the fifth inning, when Beaufort racked up three hits and four runs. Beaufort's previous run came in the third inning.

The third inning was the scoring inning for Charles B. Aycock, which got three hits but only run. The Aycock team also knocked at the door with hits in the second and fourth.

Pitching for Aycock was Howell, and taking the mound for the Seadogs was Parris Croom.

Heavy hitter for Beaufort was Ray Hassell with two for three.

Plans are now complete for the Easter Monday event honoring Beaufort's basketball team. In case of rain, the celebration will be held in the Beaufort high school auditorium.

Coach Everett Case will be the principal speaker for the big event. Coach Case is the well known coach of the North Carolina State College basketball team.

The celebration, commemorating the Beaufort team's 91 straight wins, will be held at 5:30 p.m. in front of the high school. Certificates will be given the team members, and a covered dish type supper will be served, with Seadog rooters bringing their own food.

Coach Case has been the State's coach for the past 16 years, and has led the team to 360 wins and only 111 losses in that time. In the period of 16 years, his team has brought home ten conference wins and seven Dixie Classic titles.

Another guest at the celebration will be Grady Elmore, sports writer for the News and Observer.

To preside at the celebration will be Beaufort mayor W. H. Potter. Free ice cream, soft drinks and cake will be served, donated by Sealtest Foods, Morehead City Maola Milk and Ice Cream Co. Morehead City, Pepsi-Cola distributor Ed McLawhorn, the Coca Cola Bottling Co. of New Bern, and Made-Rite Bakeries of Goldsboro.

Beaufort LL Practice Starts

Practice games are under way in the Beaufort Little League, with the player auction to be held in the near future, according to Earl Lewis, president.

More players than ever before have come out for the practice sessions held daily at the American Legion field near Beaufort. Games are held at 4 p.m.

Games for the championship are scheduled to begin about the middle of May. Coaches and their teams for the season playoffs are James Perry, Moose; Charles Hassell, Elks; Jackie Sewell, Coast Guard and VFW; and Frank Langdale, Little Frys.

Player agent is Dr. John E. Way. Treasurer is Mrs. Joyce Fulford.

Seadogs Take Seventh Win, Defeat Smyrna

The Seadogs of Beaufort got their seventh straight win of the baseball season Tuesday at Smyrna, beating Smyrna 14-1.

Leading the action against Smyrna was Ray Hassell with a homer in the fourth inning, where Beaufort gathered in four runs. Hitting with Hassell, who got four for five, was Parris Croom with two for three and Leslie Croom, also with two for three, and Alton Ifill with two for four.

Chuck Lewis, pitcher for Beaufort, made it a no-hitter with Smyrna scoring their sole run in the fourth inning with a walk-in. Barry Willis pitched for Smyrna.

The Seadogs got two hits and two runs in the first, fifth and sixth innings and two hits, four runs in the third. The big fourth inning for Beaufort had three hits and four runs.
