

Beaufort gave Morehead City a whitewashing job Saturday when Stanley Johnson, 17-year-old pitching phenomenon from Chapel Hill, placed his wares on display at the Beaufort Ball Park to win, 3-0. Sunday's game at Morehead City was postponed because of wet grounds.

Beaufort fans were plenty worried before game time when it was reported that young Johnson, scheduled to pitch Saturday's game, would be unable to pitch because of a sore shoulder, but he took the chance and made good.

Beaufort's three-run rally in the sixth inning was sparked by second baseman Ray Hassell, above, whose single drove in two runs. Photo by THE NEWS-TIMES.

Back on July 3, the last time the two teams played in Morehead of the story, and Lashley will return to the county some time this week to investigate the circumstances and make a permanent decision.

City, Johnson was making his league debut against Morehead and his pitching opponent was Jimmy Webb, Morehead mound ace, the same one who faced him this Saturday. Johnson lost that decision to Webb, 5-1, although he allowed less hits.

Johnson, in mowing down the Morehead batting order Saturday, allowed but three hits and struck out 12 men. He had it when it counted and was able to knock off the big men. He displayed a world of stuff and many of the batters were badly fooled by the antics of See BEAUFORT WINS Page 7