

Seadogs Nip Aycock 8-7 To Stretch Wins to Dozen

Eagles Lose 3-1 To Pamlico High

Morehead City's Eagles lost a close game to Pamlico high school Tuesday at Morehead City. The score was 3-1, after a hard-fought battle on the diamond.

Both teams put players over the home plate in the second inning only, with the Eagles getting their sole run of the day off two hits, and Pamlico getting two hits and three runs.

Silverthorne, Pamlico's pitcher, got a double, while the Eagles' Bernard Leary racked up two doubles, with Ed Sanderson and Chuck Sledge both getting doubles. Pitching for Morehead City was John Lee.

Beaufort got an 8-7 victory over Charles B. Aycock high school Tuesday. The win makes its string of victories an even dozen. The Seadogs have three more games, with Swansboro, Camp Lejeune and Pamlico.

The Seadogs more than matched Aycock's scoring drive with four runs in the fourth inning. Aycock had gotten two runs in the third after getting one run in the first inning. Beaufort racked up two runs in the sixth and seventh.

A decision in the seventh gave Aycock its third run for the inning, which with a single run in the sixth, gave Aycock a total of seven runs on their home field.

The decision was on a caught line drive in the top of the seventh, with an Aycock player being declared safe.

Doing the hitting for Beaufort was Parris Croom with a three for four, Robert Ison with a three for three, Ray Hassell with a homer in the sixth inning, and Richard Stanley with a two for three.

Croom began the game, relinquishing the mound to Chuck Lewis in the bottom of the third. Mooring did the pitching for Aycock. Hooks of Aycock got a triple.
