

Alton Hill Called Best At Atlantic Christian

Jack McComas, basketball coach at Atlantic Christian college, said this week that he expects his Bulldogs to be an improved team. With three returning lettermen, he is most optimistic about his sophomore center, Alton Hill, Beaufort.

Hill, a 6-foot, 5-inch starter this year, "is the best we've got," coach McComas exclaimed. Hill started as a freshman the first semester last year, but was scholastically ineligible the second term. "He is the best defensive player and the best rebounder. He has been outstanding in practice," the coach added.

Hill was a basketball letterman at Beaufort high school.
