

Seadogs Shut Out Swansboro With Parris Croom on Mound

Beaufort Ends Season With 14 Big Wins

Beaufort Seadogs had a two-inning field day Tuesday night, scoring 16 runs on Swansboro in a game that ended 16-0. The game, played under the lights at Beaufort, saw Seadog pitcher Parris Croom pitch a no-hit, no-run game.

Beaufort got eight runs from four hits in the first inning and eight runs from six hits in the second from Coy, pitching for Swansboro. Pate relieved Coy for the remainder of the game, holding the Seadogs in check.

Doing the honors at bat for the Seadogs were Richard Stanley with two for three and a triple in the first, Parris Croom with two for four and a double, and Chuck Lewis and Leslie Croom with a double each.

Pitcher Croom got 19 strikeouts to his credit, with only two men walked. Swansboro's efforts were hampered by six errors.

● String Brings Total To 23 Straight

● Seadogs Hit Lejeune 5-3 Wednesday

Beaufort's Seadogs ended their baseball season Wednesday, getting their 23rd straight win. The Seadogs beat Camp Lejeune 5-3 on the Beaufort home field.

The Seadogs have had a perfect season, without a single loss, chalking up 14 wins. Last year's season adds nine other straight wins to the total.

Beaufort's Chuck Lewis was relieved on the mound at the bottom of the sixth due to Lewis' having to go to work. Lewis got a double at bat, getting two for three. Relief pitcher Paris Croom also got a double, getting one for two. Wayne Merrill also got one for two.

Losing pitcher was Sellars. No post-season games are anticipated for the team at the present time.
