

Salter Path's Hopes Rest On Sunday Doubleheader

Salter Path's hopes of repeating as county baseball league champs are resting on the outcome of Sunday's doubleheader with Atlantic. Salter Path manager Ty frost feels that he has an advantage at Salter Path, where the game will be played.

Atlantic won both games of a doubleheader played at Smyrna last month by scores of 6-2 and 10-3. The field at Atlantic was not available, so Smyrna-HI let the two teams use their home field since they had an off Sunday.

"This time things will be different," warns Frost. He plans to start McAdcox and Jarvis Guthrie against the big sticks from Down East. Manager Roy Cockerham will stick with his two best hurlers, Butch Saunders, a right hander, and lefty Thomas Salter.

All four of the pitchers worked in the all-star game last Sunday. Most of the other players who will start the game made an appearance in the all-star game.

The other game in the county league will be played at the main post field, Cherry Point. Smyrna-HI will be playing a doubleheader with MTRG.

The Marines are tied with the Coast Guard for third place in the standings. A victory for them would give them undisputed pos-

County All-Stars To Meet New Bern

An all-star team from the county baseball league will travel to New Bern tonight to meet the New Bern All-Stars at 8 p.m. The game will be played in the municipal ball park.

Players from Salter Path, Atlantic, Smyrna-HI and the Coast Guard will make the trip. The New Bern team is led by Billy Price, well-known east Carolina player.

Price won more than 20 games a year for four straight years in professional baseball. He broke his arm pitching at Smyrna several years ago. Since that time he has learned to throw left-handed and plays the outfield.

He says that he has a strong team that will give the county all-stars all they can handle.

ession of third, while a loss would dump them into the cellar and give Smyrna-HI third place, dropping the Coast Guard to fourth.

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Atlantic	13	1	.928
Salter Path	11	3	.786
Coast Guard	6	10	.375
MTRG	6	10	.375
Smyrna-HI	4	8	.333