

All-Stars Drop Game to Bears

The New Bern Bears rallied in the eighth inning Friday night to take a 4-3 squeaker from the county baseball league all-stars at New Bern. The Bears jumped into a 3-0 lead during the first six innings.

The county team came up with a single run in the seventh inning and two in the eighth. New Bern scored in the bottom of the eighth on a base hit, a stolen base and a double.

Charles Braxton went the distance for the all stars. Bud Parker started the game for the Bears and left after pitching five innings of perfect baseball.

He was followed on the mound by Robert Gillkin, Charles Carraway and Carl Anderson.

Mack Pigott was leading batter for the all-stars with two hits in three trips to the plate.
