

Salter Path Shellacks Smyrna-HI 14-3, 7-3

Salter Path ended its losing streak Sunday with a pair of victories over Smyrna-Harkers Island at Smyrna. The outer banksmen clobbered the home team by a 14-3 count in the first game and took a 7-3 decision in the second game.

Salter Path collected only seven hits in picking up their 14 runs in the first game. Loose playing in the field, plus some wild pitching by Roy Styron gave the winners five runs in the first inning. They scored two more in the second inning before Laurie Willis went into the game for Smyrna-HI.

Willis gave up three runs in the third, one in the fourth and fifth and two in the sixth. Jarvis Guthrie weakened in the second inning to give up one run and allowed two more in the third inning. He wasn't scored on again.

Henry Frost was the leading batter for the winners with two for two. Plymouth Moore had two for four. No Smyrna-HI batters got more than one hit.

Mel Adeox pitched the second game for Salter Path. He limited the losers to seven hits, including two each by Wilson Davis and Mack Pigott.

Harold Bass and Campbell led the attack on Smyrna-HI pitcher Pigott. Bass had three for three and Campbell had a perfect day at the plate with three for three.
