

Coast Guard, Smyrna-HI To Meet for Fourth Place

→ The Coast Guard and Smyrna-HI entries in the county baseball league will meet at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at Smyrna to decide which team will meet Atlantic Sunday in the league play-offs.

The teams have identical 9-17 records for the season, but Smyrna-HI has an edge in games played between the two teams. They have won four of their six games to date.

The Coast Guard opened the series between the two teams with a pair of victories on their home field at Newport in May. Charles Braxton hurled a three-hitter at Newport for a 9-0 verdict. The Coast Guard took a 9-4 decision in the second game.

The next twin bill between the two teams was played at Smyrna where the home team won a pair of close ones, 6-5 and 3-2.

The third doubleheader was swept by Smyrna-HI at Newport. Scores in the games were 6-4 and 13-5.

The Coast Guard holds victories over every team in the league, while Smyrna-HI has failed to win from either Atlantic or Satter Path. Both teams should be primed for victory and be fighting hard for a spot in the play-offs.
