

Smyrna-HI Wins Play-Off Spot

Smyrna-Harkers Island won the fourth place play-off berth in the county baseball league with a 9-2 verdict over the Coast Guard Saturday afternoon. The game was played at Smyrna.

Jamie Lewis hurled the victory for Smyrna-HI, allowing seven hits. Lloyd Culpepper was the losing pitcher as he went all the way for the Coast Guard.

The victory was the fifth won by Smyrna-HI over the Coast Guard in their seven games this season. At the end of regular season play the two teams had identical 9-17 records to tie for fourth place in the five-team league.

The play-off game gave the winners a 10-17 mark and gave them the right to play Atlantic in the first round of championship play.
