

#6C Lee Hawkins Duke Baseball Games

Whitehead went out Dean to Kistler. Satterfield got a walk but was thrown out at second when Nick Warren made a perfect peg.

Maus got a base on balls and House hit for a base to right. Jessup produced a single to left, scoring Maus. Captain Lufty then hit the first ball pitched to left center field on a line for a home run that drove in House and Jessup.

Lufty's homer was soundly hit; the longest and hardest hit ball of the game.

The Heels had the stands in an uproar in the ninth when they scored a run and had three men on when the last out was made. Maus led off with a walk. House went out to Adams and Jessup fanned. Lufty gave Carolina a lease on life with a hit to left field that sent Maus to third. Phil Jackson then drove one to right field and Maus came in.

Coach Ashmore sent in Phil Sher, Durham boy, to hit for Cox and the batter walked to jam the sacks. Ashmore then tried Marshall Rand in place of Fleming, but the batter hit to Werber who tossed to Dean for the final out.

OTHER NOTES

Red Murray closed the season with a brilliant fielding exhibition. He went after them from all sides and did not overplay a chance, which is, no mean feat in the Emerson field rough left garden.

Duke filled the bases in the fifth with one away, but Wright pulled through without damage. This bracket saw Kistler intentionally walked to fill the bases. Jack Coombs tried Hawkins as pinch-hitter for Bennett but Lefty forced Adams at the plate. Murray closed the session by hitting to Satterfield

(Continued on Page Nine)