By DON ARTHUR

Playing on the homefield, Smyrna trounced Atlantic Tuesday by a 12-2 score, behind the four-hit pitching of Roy Styron.

Tom Salter started on the hill for the Pirates and was tagged with the loss, as Howard Pittman pitched the final two frames for the losers.

Styron struck out nine and walked four in winning the game for his team.

Smyrna opened the scoring in the first when they combined a pair of hits with a passed ball good for a run.

Three more tallies were chalked up by the Smyrna team in the last half of the fourth on a pair of basehits and two miscues by the Pirates.

In the fifth three walks, a wild pitch, an error and a basehit gave Smyrna another four tallies, and in the sixth they scored another four runs on three hits and an error.

Atlantic's two runs were scored in the top of the seventh on two walks, a hit and an error by Smyrna.

Roy Styron, Ray Willis and Ken Davis each had a pair of safeties for the winners, with Tom Salter the only man on the Pirates squad to make two basehits.

In all the game was far from a well played one as Smyrna committed five errors and Atlantic chipped in with six miscues.
