

Harkers Island Team Wins From New Bern

By EARL DAVIS

The baseball game between Harkers Island and New Bern at Beaufort Sunday was not very well attended. This was possibly caused by the failure to advertise the game. No one seemed to know about it.

The game was well in hand for the H. I. club till their pitcher, David Yeomans, was hit by a pitched ball on his pitching arm. Both Staton Moore and Delma Willis who replaced him in the box did well but were unable to keep New Bern from gaining and in the last innig with the score 7 to 6 in Harkers Island's favor, Yeomans again tried his luck in the box, with good results, striking out three more. When Yeomans was hurt he had the score 5 to 0 in his favor. He pitched to twelve batters striking out nine of them. Each team used three pitchers. This game was the fifth straight for Harkers Island against good teams.

game for the locals. Beaufort has won one and lost one in their series to date, and has defeated Atlantic and Davis two out of three each.
