It was the eighth inning before the Kinston Textile Mills team got a hit—their only one—off Leslie Davis, pitching for Beaufort here Sunday in an 11 to 0 rout of the visitors.

Beaufort's hard hitting bats chased Hinnant, starting Kinston pitcher, in the fifth and continued against McDaniel, his successor on the mound. Altogether, sixteen hits were made by Beaufort, three each by R. Hassell and Fulcher and two each by Clark, Vanhorn, Davis and Willis, one of Willis' being a homer.

The locals scored three times in the second on hits by Willis, R. Hassell, Fulcher and Clark. Four in the fourth on a pass to Willis and hits by R. Hassell, Fulcher, Davis, Clark and Vanhorn. A final cluster of four were pushed over in the fifth on Willis' round-tripper, a hit by Fulcher, base on balls to Clark and hits by C. Hassell and Vanhorn.

Thirteen visitors went down via the strike-out route. Davis walked four and hit one. Six locals were given passes.
