Led by the play of county MVP's, Jonathan Allard and Terrence Williams, the 1990-91 edition of the boys basketball team finished the season with a 14-11 record. Under the guidance of first year coach Mike Bradley and a strong team chemistry, the Patriots qualified for the State Play-offs for the first time in four years. The senior dominated squad featured solid backcourt play from guards Jimmy Graham and Scottie Golden, as well as offensive punch from Earl Godette. The Patriots won the Goldsboro News-Argus Tournament in December, defeating archrival East Carteret by a score of 91-51. West also defeated East Carteret on two other occasions to claim bragging rights in Carteret county. A 95-72 victory over Havelock and two wins against North Lenoir (including the brawl) provided some other high points of the season. After two consecutive last place seasons, this years seniors played a pivotal role in turning the program around.
