Who would have thought that the team picked to finish last in the conference would finish fourth or that they would make it to the State playoffs for the first time in nearly a decade? Who would have thought this would be the team to have two players rush for 1000 yards each? Against all odds, the Patriots showed their dedication and perseverance and exceeded everyone's expectations. Coach Watford summed up the season with these words: "The most satisfying aspect of this year's coaching experience was the opportunity to work with some of the finest young people I have ever encountered and the legacy of excellence that they leave to those who follow." Congratulations on all the hard work!

Kinston's defense wasn't strong enough for senior Ivory Gary!

The coaching staff preps the players for their next move.

Quarterback David Chambers breaks through Croatan's defense.
