The girls' varsity basketball team started their season eager to dominate the teams in their new, tougher conference. Unfortunately, the girls took a beating in the beginning, but the experience they gained will help next year's season. The girls' hard work, combined with their determination, eventually guided the team to victory.

Allison Davis stands guard against a West Craven opponent.

Lauren Miller shoots a free throw in a tough game against D. H. Conley.

Coach Roberts guides the girls the game.
