The softball team had a difficult season before the games even began. The girls lost two of their senior players just before the season started and injuries on the team were as common as colds. The team managed to have an 8-14 record this season and two of the team's players, Jennifer Bordeau and Amber Taylor made All Conference. Five JV players were brought up to play on varsity With the youth on the team that will be returning next year the varsity softball team has a promising future.
